Eco-friendly bibs can be reused

The SuperBib from Bumkins is a machine washable alternative to traditional child bibs. The baby and toddler bibs are made from an easy-to-wipe, waterproof fabric that is PVC, BPA, phthalate and lead free. Each bib measures 10 inches across and nine inches from the neck down. Each bib features a catchall pocket and adjustable fabric fastener.

The SuperBib retails for $6.95 and is available at www.bumkins.com.

Children can customize medical bracelets

Hope Paige offers medical accessories that can blend in with everyday pieces but alert medical professionals in case of an emergency. Each bracelet can be customized with an engraving on the back to inform EMT or doctors of life-threatening allergies and medical conditions such as asthma. Available in a variety of colors and styles, the Hope Paige bracelet also allows children to add fashion charms and other items. Bracelets range in price from $10 and above. Visit www.hopepaige.com.

Wrist bracelet doubles as a hair band

The Duelette bracelet is a durable, non-fray band that stretches out into a hair-tie. The band is adjustable to any size and comes in black or white. The Duelette is available in 14-karat gold- or silver-plated beads or a combination of the two and can be worn alone, together or in combination with other bracelets for any personality or occasion. Each band costs $15. Visit www.chillyjilly.com/shop/?product=22.

Neat's digital filing system helps parents stay organized

The Neat Co., the makers of the NeatDesk scanner, have launched a new digital filing system to help families keep track of all their must-have information while on the go. A mobile app allows users to capture receipt information and create expense reports through their Smart phone or mobile device. Information can be shared with other family members through mobile devices or sent to NeatCloud — an online storage tool that can be utilized for a monthly fee between $5.99 - $24.99. The app is free through iTunes.
